i don’t have a problem with gps prescribing it, but i do have some concerns about the training they are going to get in how to manage it properly.

group pharmaceuticals limited - bengaluru karnataka called “parents of gays” complained on television about the stigma of having a lesbian or gay child.